AREVA Inc. Scholarship

General Information

The Eastern Washington Section of the Society of Women Engineers (<http://ews.swe.org/>) administers a $1,000 scholarship funded by AREVA Inc. (www.us.aveva.com). AREVA created this scholarship to help ease the shortage of engineers. The scholarship is awarded annually to a qualified engineering student in the rising-sophomore or above classification in engineering fields.

Eligibility

- Be a student who has completed at least one year of studies in an ABET accredited school with an intention to enter any engineering field.
- Be in a position to accept the scholarship toward undergraduate or graduate engineering studies in an accredited school in the Fall semester following presentation of the award.
- Attend an engineering school in one of the following states: Washington, Oregon, or Idaho.

Application Forms

Official scholarship forms from the Eastern Washington Section of the Society of Women Engineers are emailed and mailed annually to the student sections and/or the Dean of Engineering and Financial Aid offices of schools in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho. Use of copies or reproductions is permitted. Additional application forms may be requested directly from:

EWS-AREVA Scholarship Chair
PO Box 364, Richland, WA 99352
